

Georgia Martin

December 11, 1927 - January 22, 2013

Georgia Maryan Martin of Corvallis died Tuesday, Jan. 22, 2013.

She was born on Dec. 11, 1927, in Sutherland, Neb., to Mary and Marion Brown. While attending school at the University of Nebraska, she met Joseph N. Martin, to whom she was married on June 1, 1949. They were loving companions for 46 years, with Joseph preceding her in death in March 1996. They are survived by their four children, Jeffrey, Andrew, Margaret and Roger. Survivors also include Andrew's wife, Lauralee Knutson Martin; and their children, Jeffrey and Jennifer; as well as Allison and Griffin, the children of her eldest son, Jeff. Her daughter-in-law, Jane, died in 2010. Georgia's three brothers, Thomas, Robert and James, all residing in Nebraska, survive her. A sister, Lucille, died in 1968. She had many nieces and nephews.

In her professional life, she taught school in Nebraska as well as in Monroe. She was a woman who laughed and loved the world, and finished her course. The family wishes to thank HIS House Adult Foster Care in Philomath for their excellent and loving care of Georgia. In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to the humane society of your choice.

To honor Georgia, an open house gathering will be held from 9 to 11 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 26, at her daughter's home. Breakfast will be served. An informal service will follow at 11 a.m. Please call 541-753-4565 with questions.

“ May the family of Georgia Martin find comfort in your loving memories, and in knowing that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34;18) Our loving Creator has promised to soon "swallow up death forever...and wipe the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25; 8) With deepest sympathy,
