On July 16, 1948 she married Delbert Weigel and left home to reside in Albany, Oregon. In 1950 they moved to Spokane, Washington where Delbert was stationed in Fairchild Air Force base. After Delbert was discharged, they lived in So. California again until work transfers took them to Reno, Nevada and later to Corvallis, Oregon. Delbert passed away in 1982 at age 59 and Grace was 53.

Delbert and Grace had 3 children: Nancy Jo of Pasadena, Ca.; Linda Joy of Monrovia, Ca, and Robert Alan of No. Ca.

After Grace was single for 13 years, she married Benjamin Riesland on June 4, 1995. They traveled extensively to the following places: Israel, Egypt, Jordan, Hawaii, Alaska, Mexico, and Canada. After their U.S. trip with their R.V. they had both visited 50 states.

Grace had years of piano instruction and then taught piano for 25 years. She played the piano and later the organ for 50 years at her church. Before building her piano class, she was employed by the Corvallis school district for 7 years. She was part of an Organ club group for 30 years. Her main love was her church, and she attended her whole life. She was involved in the following ways: Organist, Board member, Sunday School teacher, Missions President, Hospital visitation, and Flower Ministry.
