

Gregory L Mimnaugh

May 2, 1945 - April 8, 2020

Gregory (Greg) L. Mimnaugh passed away on April 8, 2020 at the Good Samaritan Regional Medical Center in Corvallis, Oregon. He was 74.

Greg was born May 2, 1945 to George and Lois (LaRoche) Mimnaugh in Portland, Oregon. He was raised in Portland where he attended school and graduated from Cleveland High School in 1963.

Greg continued to live and work in Portland eventually moving into an apartment next door to Doris Hraba. Greg and Doris were married June 17, 1967 and moved to Corvallis for Greg to pursue an Engineering degree at Oregon State University. Corvallis became Greg and Doris's home with Greg transitioning from Oregon State to a position at the American Can Company (now Georgia Pacific) and the beginning of a 34 year career with the company. During their nearly 53 years of marriage Greg and Doris raised two daughters: Amy Ann and Jill Suzanne.

Greg was driven by his love for his family, his passion for Corvettes, his enjoyment of boats, fishing and landscaping. He was known for his ability to negotiate great deals – most commonly on Corvettes. It was easy to know when he was in the midst of a deal because he would say he was “sharpening his pencil” with a mischievous twinkle in his eye. Greg spent many summers with Doris and the girls on their boats in Newport. He was an avid fisherman and loved to share his knowledge and experience with others by including them in his countless fishing trips. Greg was the captain of a fishing boat who didn't really like to eat fish. He was always happy to share his catch and did so for many years with an end-of-season salmon BBQ.

Greg will be remembered by his children and grandchildren for the Christmases spent together with Greg as the family's Santa Claus, the many trips up and down the driveway with Gramps on the tractor as he carefully manicured the yard, and the more exhilarating rides around town in his latest Corvette.

Greg was preceded in death by his father and mother, and eldest sister Joan Mimnaugh Pierson.

He is survived by wife Doris, daughters Amy Savage and Jill Larson, son-in-laws Brian Savage and Eric Larson, grandchildren Katie Savage and fiancé Cameron Hendricks, Nick Savage, Zola and Ella Larson and many loving extended family and friends. Due to the current isolation requirements, a celebration of life event will be held at a future date. Memorials may be made to Good Samaritan Hospital Foundation, 815 NW 9th Street, Corvallis, OR 97330. McHenry Funeral Home is handling arrangements. “ As a child, nothing meant Christmas like delivering gifts to Greg...

Although it's been many 25 years since my extended family did Christmas all together, there is no Christmas without Greg and Doris. It may be best remembered as a young child, but I always remember arriving at Greg and Doris' house to a flurry of activity and joy. There was an amazing blanket fort and great cousins! Doris was laughing, which I now realize is where my aunt Wendy got her wonderful laugh, both of which bring joy to a room!

At that time the living room, with vaulted ceilings, felt like a grand hall with a tree in front of the large bank of windows looking out onto the back yard. The tree seemed to be 20 ft tall in my young mind. There was an absurdly large pile of gifts extending out from the bottom of the tree in a perfect circle. This is how you do Christmas!

But what made it Christmas, was not the gifts for me, it was the process of finding a gift and bringing the gift to Greg. When a gift was chosen, I would bring the gift to Greg and he would, in his clear, thoughtful voice, read out the tag, "From Sandy, to Paul and Carol." Everyone else was quiet, I'm sure! I would then have the privilege of delivering the gift to the recipient. This is lasting in my mind as one of the best parts of Christmas.

Thank you Doris and family! We miss you Greg, and we love you. It's always sort of Christmas when I think about you, so Merry Christmas! :-)

“ Dear Mimnaugh family,
I am so sorry to hear about Greg. I worked with him at GP in the logistics department and thought the world of him. He was always a there to offer guidance, support, strength, wisdom and a good laugh. I've missed him dearly all the years he's been retired from the mill. My thoughts are with you. Please take care.
