

Harold Fuller

September 2, 1931 - June 23, 2010

Harold Dean Fuller was born Sept 02, 1931, in Holyoke, Colorado. He died peacefully at his home in Corvallis Oregon, June 23, 2010. Dean was a retired worker for the city of Corvallis. He also worked many years at the Ford Garage in Corvallis. He was also involved in many construction projects around the state of Oregon. He was a long time member and supporter of the American legion. Dean was a loving father, brother, husband, and grandfather. He was preceded in death by his father John Ashton Fuller, His Mother Geno Eva Fuller, and Brother Howard Hall Fuller. Dean married three times and is survived by his four sons, John Scott Fuller of Marysville Wa., Robert Steven Fuller of Newport Oregon, Rick Bennett of Eugene Oregon, and Ron Bennett of Lamar, Missouri; two granddaughters, Deana Marie Fuller and Lisa Geno Fuller. He is also survived by His brother Jack Fuller, and sisters, Faye Robinson, and Lois Morehouse.

Dean loved the city of Corvallis and surrounding areas. He often told stories of the good times he had spent there. He enjoyed passing the time watching car races, doing crossword puzzles and liked to listen to classic country music, his favorites were Johnny Cash, and Faron Young. He liked to visit with family and friends, and spending time with his granddaughters. Harold Dean Fuller was an honest and caring man. He will be deeply missed by those who love him.

There will be a visitation from 10:00 am to noon on Friday, July 2nd at McHenry Funeral Home.
