

Hezekiah Bishop

October 15, 1923 - April 17, 2012

Hezekiah Bishop was born in Colville, Washington on October 15, 1923 to John E. and Ora V. Bishop. He was a twin, his brother was Ezra. He grew up in Addy, Washington and attended school in Marble Valley through sixth grade. From seventh grade through high school he went to Chewelah Washington High, where he graduated. He attended Pacific Bible College in Portland, Oregon, now Warren Pacific College. This is where he met Lavelle Bishop, who became his wife in Albany, Oregon in 1946. The couple had three boys, Neil, Earl and Carl.

Mr. Bishop worked a number of years for the state and finished his working years for the U. S. Forest Service out of Alsea. He enjoyed fishing and hunting with the family. He also enjoyed reading, teaching Sunday School and helping in the church anyway possible. He loved his Lord.

Preceded in death by his parents; two brothers and one great granddaughter.

Mr. Bishop is survived by his wife of 66 years, Lavelle Bishop; sons and daughters in law Neil and Marie of Bend, Earl and Diane of Dallas, Carl and Connie of Tangent; eleven grandchildren; thirteen great grandchildren and his brother David Bishop.
