“ I am so very sad to learn of Ian’s passing last year and I didn’t even know. My maternal grandmother is named Mary “Mamie” Tooth. So Ian and I always said we had to be cousins. I can hardly believe he has moved on. We used to eat his pies. And I would stop in and visit him. Then we didn’t visit for a very long time. I actually went to their shop just yesterday to make a purchase and was saddened by the closed shop. I called the phone number to see about getting pies delivered to Corvallis. The lady on the answering machine said she’d call me back. Hasn’t happened yet and today I became aware of his death last year. Stunned and very saddened.

“ He was one of the only people I could talk to about motorcycles that would understand what I was talking about. I’ll always miss and remember him

“ A lovely man, always friendly and a joy to talk with whilst buying the pies. May your memories of him help ease the pain of his passing.
