“ I never got the chance to meet you, but I've met your daughters. They miss you. I'm talking with Cypress and she's on the verge of tears and she said that if she could do or say one more thing to him that she'd give him a hug and tell him that she loves him. She wishes she'd shown she loved him more when alive.

“ Joanne, Celeste and Cypress, My deepest sympathies on your loss! I don't remember meeting your husband/father, but from everyone's comments, I can tell he was a wonderful and funny guy! Sending you all a big hug! If you ever want to talk to someone who has been through something like this, I'm on FB, and you know where I live! Blessings to all of you!!

“ He is the father of my grandchildren...I have always thanked him for that...and I always liked jack...brilliant mind...and always a unique way of expressing it...sarcastic and genuine...I liked that about him....recently my life became a train wreck...my last conversation with him was very recent and he was trying to cheer me up...told me keep my chin up because I'm a good person and good grandmother and that he knew in his heart that all of it would work out for me...I'll never forget that...thanks jack...RIP you will be missed but god had bigger plans for you!

“ We met briefly at Matt and Katelyn's wedding. I instantly felt at ease around him and we kept in touch via social media after. Though our meeting on this earth was brief I enjoyed his sense of humor and authenticity.

Your presence will be missed, Jack. I will continue to pray for all of your family during such a sad time in their lives. For though we know you wait on the other end - we pray your family lives the life they have here until we are all reunited. You seemed like a person who enjoyed every moment of life - and I pray that your family continues that legacy.
