“ I have a clear picture in my head of Brother Coffield pedaling to church on his bicycle near the feed store in his suit wearing a helmet.. most every Sunday.. rain or shine. He was always quiet and smiling.

“ I am sad that James' beautiful, kind spirit has left the world, but happy that he is now in a better place. I have fond memories of his willingness to do anything he could to help at the Corvallis Nativity Festival. And I was often inspired by his dedication to physical fitness, especially his committment to bike riding. I am grateful to have known him these last few years and offer my condolences to his family.
