“ To the family of James Hare, I'm deeply sadden to hear of the loss of James. I grew up with james and graduated from Oakridge with him. He was a great guy and a friend. Although we lost touch after Oakridge I'm very glad to have known him and will always remember him in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Wes, Evelyn and family.
Please accept our sincere condolences for the passing of your beloved son, brother, husband and Dad. We enjoyed hearing the stories Wes told over the years. What a wonderful family you have. God has received another angel. If there is anything we can do for you, please let us know.
