

James Nixon

May 25, 1950 - April 13, 2008

James Nixon, 57 died Sunday at his home in Bellfountain. Jim was born May 25, 1950 in Corvallis; he was the son of Edward and Rozena Blackwell Nixon. Jim graduated from Monroe High School and was employed for most of his working career as a logger. He loved nature and being outdoors—enjoyed fishing and hunting and was proud to be a local logger. He also worked in commercial construction helping to build Toys R Us and Costco. Jim had a great sense of humor and touched a lot of people’s lives. His family describes him as an A-1 Brother and Son and a good Christian man; one who was always willing to help others if asked.

Preceded in death by his father, Edward Emery Nixon who passed in 1999; Jim is survived by his mother, Rozena Nixon; two sisters Rosane (John) Koch and Mary Jane Jackson; his companion Andrea “Andy” Scott; nephews Thad (Sandi) Koch, David (Kristin) Koch; one niece Ruby (Ryan) Parmenter; great nephew Henry Koch, great niece Emma Koch and great nephew Thomas Koch. He is also survived by Venus McBride who was an important part of Jim’s life for many years.

A graveside service will be at 11:00 Thursday, April 24th at Bellfountain Cemetery. A potluck luncheon will follow at Bellfountain School. The family requests memorial donations in Jim’s name be directed to McHenry Funeral Home.
