“ A year today our beloved Jana died. Not a day has gone by that we haven't thought of and celebrated her. You are life and love in our hearts, Jana, and we miss you. Thank you for the gift of your son, and for watching over Cole, Kingsley, and the rest of us.

“ I'm shocked and so saddened, but on some level there must have been some sort of awareness. She popped into my mind within the last couple of days and I was remembering our random meeting at the Chinese restaurant two or three months ago when I was on my way out and she was on her way in to pick up her to go order and we just plopped down at a table and chattered like two school girls for over an hour. I am so grateful for that chance meeting and memory.

I knew Jana for many years, probably twenty, and what a well-liked, good-hearted person she was and will always be remembered as in the Lincoln City area. Comfort to Cole, her son, of whom she was so proud and always talked about.

I will forever remember her in her little red mustang convertible, top down, hair blowing in the wind, with her hand in the air, laughing and waving...
