“ Aunt Janet was my best friend as a child when my parents couldn't/wouldn't be there for me. She taught me about every kind of bird there is in Missouri. I knew those woods like the back of my hand because she always took me on her nature walks. Aunt Janet was the sweetest most kindest human being I had ever known. Her smile was infectious and she was so carefree. She was a sensitive spirit. She would do ANYTHING for her family. I'm glad we got to speak and hearing how happy you were made me happy. I remember a time when I was very little, I had done something wrong and she was gonna whip me with a spoon. I ran round and round the house with her chasing me and it ended up a game of tag and her laughing hysterically at my antics. I love you so much aunt Janet!! I miss you dearly...

“ Janet was a very warm and caring person, always concerned about the welfare of others. She also delighted in her impish and fun-loving nature, reveling in her nicknames "Shagnasty" and "tough ole bird", giggling every time she heard them. She loved her family, her friends, Mike, and everyone helping her whom she called " her angels".
Janet is now with her Father in Heaven surrounded by angels, and she is now pain-free, happy, and 'perfect' in every way. Janet, it was a blessing to know you.
