

Jean R. Shay

September 3, 1922 - February 14, 2020

Jean Eleanor Rhode Shay, 97, died Feb 14, 2020 at West Hills Assisted Living under the care of Hospice in the presence of chamber music and her son and daughter-in-law Mike and Mona Shay.

Jean was born Sept 3, 1922 in Madison Wisconsin to Athanasius Richard Rhode of Green Bay Wisconsin and Ella Rubie Masson of St Anne Illinois. She grew up and attended college in Madison, focusing on classical music and violin/viola performance which remained a life-long passion.

On August 7, 1943, Jean married J. Ralph Shay at her sister's home in Bonner Springs, KS. Jean and Ralph soon moved from Wisconsin to Arkansas where Ralph completed his PhD., then moved to W. Lafayette, IN in 1945 where they lived for 21 years and had a family of six children. In 1951, Jean was a charter member of the Lafayette Symphony where she played for 15 years. In 1966, the family moved to Corvallis, Oregon where they built a family home on 5 forested acres, 3 miles west of Corvallis. Jean continued to reside there until age 94.

Jean was a beloved Daughter, Wife, Mother, Aunt, Grandmother and Great-Grandmother. She was an avid Violist, Gardener and Bridge player. She often played chamber music and bridge in her home with her many friends into her 90s. She actively lived at home until age 94 when she moved to assisted living in 2016.

Preceded in death by sister Marian Adelle Wheeler on January 20, 1975, brother Richard Masson Rhode on February 1, 1988, her husband Ralph on March 27, 1980 and her daughter Susan Shay on July 6, 2015. Jean is survived by her children Margaret Prasad, Linda Katz, Michael Shay, Elizabeth Brinkley and Jennifer Jordan and more than 20 grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She was greatly loved and will be missed by all.

Tribute Wall

MR

“ Jean was an awesome lady. I took care of her at West Hills & we often had great conversations & laughs together. Some times she would just sit quietly & all of a sudden she would start a chuckle which was contagious & then explain what she was giggling about by then we were all laughing but didn't know why. I loved everything about her & it was my pleasure to take care of this woman of grace & kindness

---

Misti Reeves - March 31, 2020 at 09:04 AM