

Jeannie Iola Graber

February 19, 1931 - January 22, 2016

Jeannie Iola Graber (Dryden, Schrock, McChesney) of Corvallis passed away Friday, Jan. 22, at the Corvallis Manor.

She was born in Redstone, Montana, in 1931 to Alden Delano and Martha (Minor) Dryden.

At the age of 15, Jeannie and her family came to Oregon from Montana. She married Dale D. Schrock in 1949, and together they had four children. Later she married Jim McChesney and then Dick Graber.

Jeannie worked several different jobs throughout her many years living in Corvallis: Johnny's 49er; McGregor's Dime Store; first drive through window teller for U.S. National Bank; receptionist for Dr. Leonard McBride Chiropractic; and customer greeter at Signer Motors. She always had a ready smile and loved people.

Jeannie loved cooking, baking, dancing and spending time with her many friends and family.

Jeannie was preceded in death by brothers Arvid, Don, Glenn, Larry, and her twin, Jay Dryden; and sister Ora Dryden Eller.

She is survived by sister Velva Seto of Medford; children Laura Schrock Maxwell and Michael Schrock of Corvallis, and Debra Schrock Vidis of Roseville, California; 12 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren.

A celebration of life will be at 11 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 30, at McHenry Funeral Home with a reception to follow.

Contributions in her memory may be made to Samaritan Evergreen Hospice in care of McHenry Funeral Home, 206 N.W. Fifth St., Corvallis, OR 97330.

“ Jeannie and my wife Ellen were sisters-in-law. My fondest memories of Jeannie were when the two of them were together and they invariably chatted about their history together. My, the stories those girls told. Then they would start giggling and laughing. I can see them now in heaven saying, "Remember the time we"

Rest in peace girls.
