“ My brother Jeffrey “Jeff” George Sharp has passed of natural causes at age 69 in Corvallis, Oregon. He was a 1969 graduate of Corvallis High School in Oregon and after becoming the Corvallis Gazette-Times junior-chess champion in 1963, he became the senior chessmaster of the CHS chess team through 1969. After graduating Phi Kappa Phi from Oregon State University, he was widely respected as a master trader in the New York stock market though bull markets and bear markets alike over decades. He is remembered by among others my former wife Kirstine Keel, my daughter Stephanie Sharp and our Corvallis friends including Dave Winstead and Richard Johnson. He will also be remembered by the homeless people in Corvallis after he financed and provided housing for them, inspired by his favorite author Victor Hugo. — Chris Sharp

Jeff Sharp, always an interesting person! We reconnected at the fifty year class reunion, sorry for your loss. We were friends since ninth grade. He had a keen mind and like to challenge the system.

So sorry to learn of Jeff's passing recently. Many great memories from our days as kids in the old neighborhood.
