“ Jennifer was amazing. We met in school, somewhere along the line. She was kind and open and funny and smart and unassuming. Her mother taught me how to crochet. May she rest in peace.

“ I knew Jennifer in high school and thought she was one of the coolest people I knew. Her love of animals and sweet nature covered a fierce sense of self that couldn't be extinguished. I wish I'd known her as an adult and send lots of love to those who mourn her loss. May her memory be a blessing to all of us.

“ I attended grade school with Jennifer and remember visiting her throughout an entire summer when she had a leg surgery. Always thought her parents had the coolest house with a spiral staircase. RIP Jennifer

I met Jennifer at Western View Junior High School in the early 70s, and liked her very much from the first day. She was kind, funny, irreverent, and one of the warmest people I have ever met. I am very sorry to hear that she passed on.
