

Jill Annette Baertlein

August 20, 1964 - October 24, 2013

Jill Annette Baertlein, 49 died Thursday October 24th at Evergreen Hospice House in Albany. Jill was born August 20, 1964 in Walnut Creek, California to Gerald and Margaret Tarin. She married Robert L. Baertlein on January 28, 1989 in Livermore, California. The couple has two children, Bobby and Jimmy. Before marriage, Jill was employed in the banking industry. After her marriage, she assisted Bob in the operation of their mortgage business. When the children came along, the majority of her time was spent in school activities and sporting events with her two boys. She was the director of Religious Education at the Catholic Church the family attended in Chester, California. The family moved to the Willamette Valley in 2010. Jill was an awesome homemaker—a great cook, enjoyed crafts, gardening, flowers and the finer things in life. She was very outgoing and vivacious, loved to entertain their friends. For the time that she has lived in Philomath, she has an enormous group of close and special friends. Jill was very loved and will be forever missed by her family and many friends.

Jill is preceded in death by her father, Gerald who died in 2012 and her sister Julie Ann Womack, who died in 2001. She is survived by her beloved husband, Bob; her two sons, Bobby and Jimmy; mother Margaret Ann Monetti, stepfather David Monetti; sisters Janis Dossey, Jacqueline Tarin-Rankl, Adrienne Monetti, Cindy Warner and her brother Tony Monetti; father-in-law and mother-in-law Dick and Mardene Baertlein.

Memorial donations in Jill's name may be directed to Evergreen Hospice House in Albany. A niche side inurnment will take place at 11:00 am, Saturday November 9h at Oak Lawn Memorial Park in Corvallis.

“ To Bob, your sons, and Families, I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I remember the last time we spoke, you sounded a little bit more optimistic, but with cancer, I guess we never really know. I do know you loved Jill very much, and she was a an exceptional person. We will keep your family in our thoughts and prayers.
