

John Thurston Jones

March 28, 1933 - June 23, 2013

John Jones of Philomath passed away Sunday in his home. He was 80.

He was born in Pomona, Kan., the son of John W. Jones and Hazel Jones, now deceased. John moved to Dallas in the summer of 1951, and shortly thereafter enlisted in the U.S. Army, serving in the Korean War. After his discharge from the army, he came back to Dallas, where he met Jacqueline Burbank. They were wed Aug. 21, 1954, and were married for 52 years before she passed away in 2006.

John worked on the railroad for Boise Cascade for many years, and when the railroad shut down, he went to work for Hoskins Lumber, from which he retired. John was a hard worker, and loving husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather. He enjoyed fishing, hunting, playing cards and spending time with his family. John was the type of person who would do anything for you.

John is survived by sons Gerald and Rick Jones; daughter and son-in-law Jackie and Kyle Schreiber; grandchildren Tim Jones, Tiffany Denué, Ryan Jones, Bryan Jones and Christopher Jones; great-grandchildren Steph Jones, Haylee Denué and Issabella Jones; sisters Susan Wilhite and Josie Harris; and brothers Joseph Jones and Alex Jones.

Visitation is set for 2 to 5 p.m. today, Thursday, at McHenry Funeral Home. A graveside service will take place at 1 p.m. Friday at Pedee Cemetery. A gathering of family and friends will follow directly after the service at Pedee Hall.
