

Joyce S. Koroush

June 23, 1928 - April 16, 2013

Joyce S. Koroush, 84, of Monroe died Tuesday at Good Samaritan Regional Medical Center in Corvallis.

She was born June 23, 1928, in Ovid, Colo., the daughter of Adolf and Emma Laufman Gerold. She graduated from Monroe Union High School and married Ivan Koroush in 1946. The couple had five children, Lonnie, Sherry, Terry, Penney and Von. Together they operated Redmond Taxi and Limousine Service from 1974 until their retirement in 1983.

The couple enjoyed spending time traveling in their motor home, clamming and crabbing on the Oregon Coast, and spending time at the casinos. Joyce loved her dogs Tooty and Tippy —she called them “my babies.”

She was preceded in death by her husband of 54 years, Ivan Koroush; her sisters, Myrtle Olsen, Betty Campbell and Maylene Bartram; and her brother, Tony Gerold. Joyce is survived by her children, Lonnie Koroush, Sherry Gunzner, Terry (Kathy) Koroush, Penney (Doug) Albin and Von (Dean) Buss; 17 grandchildren; 26 great-grandchildren; five great-great-grandchildren; her sister, Vivian Thornberry; and two brothers, Leslie Gerold and Ike Gerold.

A memorial service is set for 11 a.m. Saturday, April 20, at Bellfountain Community Church, followed by a luncheon. Pastor Greg Klein will officiate.

Private inurnment will take place at Alpine Cemetery. Please leave your thoughts and memories for the family at

“ *Lonnie, Sherry, Terry, Penny, & Von;
Many prayers are with you and your families today! Aunt Joyce was such a great lady and a lot of fun. We will never forget all the visits and the great care she gave our dad Tony, she did love him with all her heart. Please know we would be there with you if we could.*

Love You All
