“ We first met Mia in Norway when she was a nurse caring for a relative of ours. Through the years in Lake Oswego and Our Saviors, we will cherish many memories and happy times.

Our thoughts and prayers are with the family.

I treasure the times Mia and I met at Starbucks for coffee and a lot of conversation.

I thank God for her friendship!

Ære være hendes minde,

Mia and Mark were such good friends to my parents Harold and Ella Berentson. We always loved to hear about her trips to Norway and remember how much she loved the sun. Their home in Lake Oswego created such a cozy Norwegian atmosphere. Happy memories. Nancy Berentson Espinoza
