

Kelsey Alexandra Baker

August 31, 1991 - April 29, 2011

Kelsey Rozetta Alexandra, 19, and Theo Dantos Aquepucho, 1, were called home April 29. They will not only be greatly missed by their family and friends, but also by everyone in the community who had the opportunity to know them as well.

Kelsey was born in Portland on Aug. 31, 1991. She was raised in Philomath and graduated from Philomath High School in 2009. She continued her education at Oregon State University in hopes of someday becoming a nurse. With a warm heart and great sense of humor, caring for and loving others was her calling. Kelsey also enjoyed traveling as well as trying and cooking new foods.

On April 17, 2010, in Corvallis, Kelsey was blessed with her beautiful son, Theo. Nothing came more naturally to Kelsey as being a mother. Once Theo was a part of the family, it was impossible to picture one without the other. Whether it was fixing a meal or taking a nap, Theo and Kelsey were always together. Theo was a huge "mama's boy," and it was rare that you could get him away from her without upsetting at least one of them.

Kelsey and Theo were preceded in death by Kelsey's mother, Carolyn Baker; and survived by four of Kelsey's siblings: brother Daniel Baker and sisters Noelle Cummings, Jordan Baker and Randi Baker; as well as numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, grandparents and a niece and nephew.

An opportunity to celebrate the lives of Kelsey and Theo will be at 1 p.m. Saturday, May 7, at Philomath High School. There will be a public viewing from 10:30 a.m. to noon the same day at McHenry's Funeral Home.

A memorial fund has been set up at OSU Federal Credit Union for those wishing to help under the account name "Kelsey and Theo Baker Memorial Fund."
