

Kim Elaine Diviney

October 1, 1955 - April 4, 2014

Kim Folsom Diviney, 58, of Corvallis passed Friday, April 11, at Oregon Health & Science University in Portland, due to cancer. She was blessed with a short battle.

Kim was born Oct. 1, 1955, in San Jose, Calif., to Albert William Folsom and Carolyn Mildred Sadrin. She was the youngest of four siblings, joining Albert Lorn, Meredith and Robert Folsom. She was married to Thomas Diviney, her loving husband of 18 years, and was the mother of Brook, Hillary, William, Wayne and Jimmy. She also was grandmother to eight grandchildren who loved her very much.

She graduated from Oregon State University in 2001 with a bachelor's degree from the College of Pharmacy. While attending college full time, she also worked full time at WinCo, all while raising five amazing children. After she graduated, she worked at Rice's Pharmacy and then as a pharmacist at Bi-Mart. She loved her job as a pharmacist, and the people, both those she worked with and those she consulted with.

She volunteered at her church, where she influenced many. She took great pride in teaching both primary and seminary classes, where she learned as much from the children as she taught them. She loved the many children she taught.

She was planning a trip to Haiti to volunteer her services as a pharmacist. She loved traveling and spent many years abroad. She also loved spending time in her garden.

She was loved by many and will be greatly missed.

Please join us for a memorial service at 11 a.m. this Saturday, April 12, at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints at 1205 N.W. Walnut Blvd., Corvallis, OR 97330.

Survivors include her husband, Thomas Daviney; sons, William Mathis, Wayne Mathis and Jimmy Shaffer; daughters, Brook Mathis and Hillary Mathis Hampton; brothers, Albert Lorn and Robert Folsom; a sister, Meredith Folsom; and eight grandchildren.
