

Kimberly Ann Rogers

September 28, 1960 - September 29, 2015

Kimberly Ann Rogers, September 28, 1960 – September 29, 2015

Kimberly Ann Rogers, 55, of Corvallis passed away Tuesday, September 29, at Samaritan Evergreen Hospice House in Albany. She had been battling Ovarian Cancer since the start of 2010.

She was born September 28, 1960 in Erie, PA. She attended college at Penn State then traveled to Scotland and several locations in the United States.

She met Phillip in Silverdale, Washington; they were married and had Mary. In 2001, they moved to Corvallis, settled in and Aaron was born in 2002.

A caring, loving mother and wife Kim also volunteered her time in community service as a member of Corvallis Assistance League. She also volunteered countless hours in Franklin School.

She is survived by her husband Phillip Rogers, children Mary and Aaron Rogers, mother Darlene DiNicola (Texas), brothers Robert DiNicola (Texas), Mike DiNicola (Czech Republic), sister Kate Ferreri (Pennsylvania), many aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews.

There will be a celebration of her life Thursday, October 8th at CH2M Hill Alumni Center from 5 - 8 PM.

Tribute Wall

JM

“ I was looking online for my old friend Kim and this is where I found her ... wish we hadn't lost touch. We last talked when Mary was a baby. Kim was a vibrant, beautiful and kind friend and I have many wonderful memories of time spent with her.

---

Janet Maple - September 05, 2017 at 11:40 PM