

Kathleen "Kitty" Fewel

June 14, 1947 - September 8, 2025

Kathleen (Kitty) Jane Fewel, was born June 14th, 1947, in Portland, Oregon, and raised in Lake Oswego, Oregon. She attended Lake Oswego High School and worked at Benton County Bank to help put her kids through college. She passed away peacefully in Corvallis, Oregon, September 8th, 2025. She was a beloved wife to Scott Fewel and a devoted mother to sons Heath and Chance. She had two wonderful daughters-in-law, Jennifer and Teresa, and 6 amazing grandkids: Dominic, Spencer, Delaney, Stephen, Austin, and Roman. Known for her quiet grace, Kitty's kindness and steady presence touched everyone around her. Deeply intelligent, yet humbly down-to-earth, she loved fiercely, staying loyal, trustworthy, and endlessly caring for her family. Her strength and warmth will be cherished always. Rest in peace, Kitty.

“ Kitty was in the same High School graduating class as I. Memories of her include being in French Club and other classes. I "ran" into her a couple of times in Corvallis and she hadn't change, still a kind and beautiful person. My heartfelt condolences to her family and friends.
