

Larry Booen

July 16, 1942 - February 9, 2011

Larry Booen, 68, of Albany passed away Wednesday in Corvallis.

Larry was born in Bertha, Minn., to George and Ellen (Swenson) Booen. He was the youngest of five children and their only son.

The family moved to Oregon, where Larry spent his childhood in Philomath. He served in the U.S. Army after he finished high school, then eventually settled in the Albany area. He worked for Wah Chang in Millersburg until his retirement. He was a proud member of USWA Local 6163. Larry enjoyed the outdoors, especially the Oregon coast, where he spent a lot of his time.

Larry is survived by daughters Vicki Reinhart of Albany and Rita McAdaragh of Cornelius; son Don Miller of Largo, Fla.; eight grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; sister Phyllis Lewis of Albany; and many nieces and nephews. He is also survived by the love of his life for the last 13 years, Mary Logan of Corvallis.

Larry was preceded in death by his parents, three sisters and one grandson. There will be a small graveside service at 1 p.m. Friday, Feb. 18, at Oak Lawn Memorial Park in Corvallis.

McHenry Funeral Home is handling arrangements.
