

LeRoy "Sonny" Steber

August 11, 2011 - December 31, 2011

LeRoy "Uncle Sonny" (also known as Roy) Steber died Saturday at Corvallis Manor. Born August 11, 1928 in Worland, Wyoming; he was the son of Alex and Katherine Steber. Roy married Inez Voeller in Reno in 1990. He was a heavy equipment operator for more than 40 years and had a reputation for being an excellent backhoe operator. Roy worked on many commercial projects of which he was very proud—most notably, he helped build Keiko's home at the aquarium in Newport. Roy and Inez enjoyed their home on the Oregon Coast until nine years ago when they relocated to Corvallis. He loved spending time with his children and grandchildren and will be remembered for his wonderful sense of humor.

Preceded in death by his parents; one sister, Kathrine and an infant son. Roy is survived by his wife of 21 years, Inez Steber; three children Linda Steber, Larry Steber and Victoria Berg; 2 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild; 5 step children; many step grand children and step great grandchildren; one sister Lillian Neuman; one brother Ted Steber; several nieces, nephews and cousins.

Memorial donations in Roy's name may be directed to Alzheimer's research in care of McHenry Funeral Home 206 NW 5th St., Corvallis, OR 97330. A private inurnment will take place in the spring in Tahoma Cemetery in Yakima, Washington.

“ The Steber family lived across the street from us in Union Gap, back in the 1960's. I attended school with Linda, Larry and Vicky. I often thought of them when they moved away. Truly a great family and wonderful neighbors. I am deeply saddened to hear of your loss. May the Lord bless you all.
