September 8, 1927 - January 31, 2013

Lloyd L. Fry of Corvallis peacefully passed away on Thursday, Jan. 31.

He was born to Roy and Margaret Fry on Sept. 8, 1927, in Cottage Grove.

Lloyd was a graduate of Corvallis High School and served in the U.S. Navy near the end of World War II. Following the war he returned to Corvallis and began working for the Pacific Bell Telephone Company. In 1955, he married Marigene G. Pelouze of Portland; the couple had two children.

After 35 years with the phone company, Lloyd retired to spend more time with his beloved wife and their new family hobby — golf. For several years Lloyd and Marigene traveled throughout the western United States in search of pars, birdies and good shopping. Lloyd also was an avid snow skier and dedicated Oregon State University Beaver fan.

Lloyd was preceded in death by his mother and father; his wife, Marigene; his brothers Don of Seal Rock and Jim of Seattle, Wash.; and his sister Elaine Anderson of Salem.

He is survived by his daughter, Jolyn Sexson of Corvallis; his son, Eric Fry of San Jose, Calif.; along with his loving grandchildren, Morgan Morris of Lake Placid, N.Y., and Brennan and Madeline Fry of San Jose. He also leaves behind a group of dear friends who shared many laughs together during their daily coffee ritual at Darrell's Restaurant in Corvallis.

In accordance with Lloyd's wishes, there will be no service or funeral. The family would like to thank Linda Cook for the loving care she provided over the last several months of Lloyd's life. Cards and wishes can be sent to McHenry
