“ I have known Lois for almost 13 years. We have loved, laughed and debated a lot. She was always such a great hostess and gourmet chef. We shared the love of good books and animals and nature. I shall miss her more than words can say. I hope that her sons, Billy and Roger and Roger's wife, Susan will stay in touch. She had lovely children. She will be missed by many here in the Mennonite Village.

“ My (step) grandma Lois was and will always be a special lady. She was so caring and understanding. I remember her house in Louisville. Her house smelled like a fairytale cottage in the woods with the herbs and flowers she had hanging to dry. She knew I was a quite child, but she allowed me to take my time to embrace her. When my mom passed away, Lois comforted me with such heartfelt tenderness. She will be greatly missed. My deepest condolences to her family and friends.

“ Lois was a dear friend. We shared our love of poetry and music. Before my husband died he helped her with her music center and with her computer. We both had a very high regard for her. She was a strong and intelligent woman. I will miss her. Condolences to her family and friends who I know will feel her loss greatly. Janet Jarvis.

“ I had a lovely very positive letter from Lois maybe 3 weeks ago. She was so optimistic and looking forward to moving into Quail Run so it was a shock to see her death notice in this morning's paper. I met Lois when she first moved to Corvallis. She was a good friend of a student in the Landscape Architecture Dept. where I worked. She was always curious, wanting to learn and was a great teacher. I had her down to my beach cabin in Yachats and she always knew all the floral a fauna and rock formations--I will have go back and read my log book about the good times we had down there. I will really miss her but happy that she was part of my life. Marolyn Welch Tarrant

“ I was always impressed with the writing talent Lois exhibited in her interviews with different residents at Mennonite Village. Our conversations were always uplifting, and she was always smiling! Her dry sense of humor caught me off guard when i first met her. She was always a very "classy" lady, and she will be missed by everyone who knew and loved her.

“ I was a neighbor of Lois for over 6 years. She did share a lot about herself and family when we had time to sit and visit. She will be missed for sure.
