“ Loretta’s lived across the street from me when I was a newlywed, and had my four children. She was only 15 years older than me, so she was my friend-sister-mother all rolled into one. We laughed, cried and came up with hare-brained ideas together. I will miss her dearly. My kids all love her. She will always be an important person in my life story. Photo: She was the first person to hold my youngest after his home delivery.

“ Loretta was a beautiful and kind woman. She always had a big smile on her face every time I saw her. My favorite memory of Loretta was when she came to my house last Valentine’s Day and we frosted cookies. Such a fun day!
