“ I will miss Lynette so much. I saw here through a lot of ups and downs, and always she had so much grace and courage and a great sense of humor. She loved people: her friends and family were everything to her. She didn't ask for much, but appreciated the help and support she got from others.

“ Lynette was a very caring, loving and giving person. She had lots of challenges over the years and many health problems but she dealt with them in her own unique way and worked very hard to overcome all. We were Greyhound friends for many years and I am missing her. I know she is free from pain now and has no disabilities and we will meet again over the Rainbow Bridge. Rest peacefully my old friend.

“ 'Nette, I will miss you, your generous heart, your stubborn spirit, your sweet smile, your love of family, your attention to Aunt Bev. We had so many wonderful vacations at Ledge Lodge, where you caught your first fish, sitting patiently for hours after the rest of us had given up. We were more like sisters than cousins back then, our two families as close as one. Your compassion for animals as well as humans is your legacy. You are in our hearts forever and ever.

Love, Alison
