

Mandy Louderback

March 24, 1981 - June 30, 2011

March 24, 1981 — June 30, 2011

Mandy Ann Louderback, 30, of Philomath died of liver disease on June 30 in Corvallis.

She was born in Pocatello, Idaho, to Laurie J. and Arthur Edwin Kyle. Later, Jerrod Townsend became her stepfather.

Mandy worked for eight years as a veterinary technician with the Linus Pauling Institute at Oregon State University. She enjoyed camping and fishing with her family.

She married Gary Lee Louderback in Springfield. He survives her. Other survivors include her son, Jayden Lee Louderback; and brother, Matthew Arthur Kyle.

Tribute Wall

TB

“ To Gary and Jayden, my deepest sympathies go out to the 2 of you! Mandy such a wonderful person with a huge heart. I met her on the American Babies msg board when we were pregnant in 2005. I always loved talking to her and hearing stories about "the boy"(as she referred to Jayden). I am saddened to hear about her passing and am very sorry to just now be offering my condolences.

---

Tara (AB board) - May 09, 2012 at 03:51 PM