

Margaret Marie Lederhos

March 16, 1927 - November 28, 2013

Margaret Marie Hicks Scalf Lederhos, a longtime resident of Corvallis, passed away on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 28, 2013, in her home.

Margaret was born on March 16, 1927, in Minden, W.Va., to William Hicks and Pearl Meadows Hicks.

She married Loren James Lederhos on Oct. 2, 1983, in Reno, Nev.

She taught herself to crochet, and produced hundreds of afghans in her lifetime. She was a cook in the classic Southern style; we will miss her fried chicken.

She was preceded in death by her daughter Franny James; her grandson Forrest James; her granddaughter Talana McGary; and several sisters and brothers.

Survivors include her husband, Loren Lederhos; son, Shaylor Scalf (Nancy); daughter Freda Marie; daughter Debilyn Riggs (Charlie); daughter Sheila Daugherty (Ken); two sisters living in Virginia; and a multitude of grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

The family invites you to attend the memorial service at 2 p.m. on Wednesday,

December 11th, at McHenry Funeral Home, 206 N.W. Fifth St., Corvallis.
(Please note the service date has changed due to inclement weather.)

“ Margaret was a hard working, loving Mother to all her children. We loved her as the mother of our Daughter-in-Law, Sheila. Margaret had beautiful eyes!! She is at peace now.

“ We knew and loved Margaret as a hard-working mother that always put her children and grandchildren first. For so many years she held down a job and raised her children. Our daughter-in-law, Sheila is one of her daughters and Margaret did a wonderful job in raising her as she has been a loving part of our family for over 30 years. Our condolences to husband Loren. “ Margaret wasn't a typical mother-in-law. She was actually pretty cool! She spoke her mind. If she didn't like something, you'd get an earful, but she was very funny too!

She told me if I ever disrespected her daughter she would hunt me down. She meant it but she did approve of me and said so, reminding that I WAS her favorite son-in-law. She probably told Ken that too!

I'll miss her!
