

Margaret D. Tillou

April 12, 1921 - April 2, 2013

Margaret D. Tillou of Corvallis, formerly of Clarendon Hills, Ill., passed away on April 2, 2013, at home, surrounded by her family.

Born in Joliet, Ill., Marge was the third of nine children. Her parents, Biase and Assunta De Acetis, were Italian immigrants who raised their children working together on the family dairy. As a young woman, Marge lived and worked in Chicago. She married Richard G. Tillou in 1953 and moved to Clarendon Hills, where she lived until 2010.

She is survived by her two daughters, Linda S. Tillou and Deb (Joe) Sikich; and by her grandchildren Erik (Ann Marie) Schousboe, Jason Schousboe, Ellen Schousboe and Peter Sikich. Marge also will be missed by her surviving siblings and by her many nieces and nephews, along with their children; and by many dear friends.

Marge lived her life with grace and humility. She always was supportive and respectful, and truly did not have unkind words for anyone. She showed her character and her love for family, friends and community in the way she lived each day, always willing to share her time, hard work and considerable skills. Her life served as a model and a gift for those she loved.

Mom, we will miss you. The family is grateful to all who cared for her in so many different ways during her last two years in Corvallis.

Services will take place in Illinois. Online condolences can be sent to www.mchenryfuneralhome.com.
