“ I grew accustomed to seeing Marilyn at our favorite coffee and sandwich restaraunt in Corvallis. We did not know her until I stirred up a coversation with her one Saturday. When God puts people in my path, I pay attention. I will miss not seeing this softspoken and gentle lady.

My condolences to the Dilles family.

Sincerely, Roberta

“ We will miss Marilyn's great appreciation for our garden; she really enjoyed our roses. She always had a ready smile and was a wonderful conversationalist. Her walking routine was inspirational! Although we did not know her well, she was a big part of our neighborhood and we will miss her. Sandy smith, Jack Wolcott

“ I had the privilege of meeting Marilyn years ago when we were both interested in some major community development issue. I continued to see her not infrequently as she walked about town, and we always had a smile and pleasant greeting for each other. I hadn't seen her recently, but would think of her every so often...I really admired the vim and determination she presented. t jensen
