“ Dear Marta I just heard about you today. I was so sad. I have so many memories before & after Joshua, before you moved to Oregon. One of my favorite memories is when You came to California to visit. You & I were sitting in our front porch & Joshua closed our front door which was locked. We went around the back to go in through the sliding door & Joshua had locked it. He just stood there smiling with our dog right by him. Another was when you tried to teach me, miss naive, how to play black jack in Vegas. So much more. Joshua our deepest condolences as I know it's been awhile but having experienced loss at a young age, it can still hurt years later. Our prayers to all who knew your mom. Angie & Jeff P.
