

Martin Edward Thompson

October 25, 1928 - December 11, 2021

Martin Edward Thompson Sr., 93, of Albany, died Saturday December 11th at Brookdale Geary Street where he was a resident.

Martin was born on October 25th, 1928 in Portland, Oregon to Charles Peter and Clara Isabelle Thompson. He graduated from Oregon State University in 1951 with a degree in electrical engineering. He married Marian Hilton in 1956 in Poulsbo, Washington. The couple and their three children, Ann, Martin Jr. and Susan, made their home in the Seattle area from 1959 through 1974, where Martin was employed by the Boeing Company. In 1974 the Thompson family moved to Corvallis where Martin ran the Radio Shack store on 9th Street.

Martin was an active member of First Presbyterian Church in Corvallis, a supporter and volunteer for Habitat for Humanity and spearheaded the efforts to preserve the Thompson's Mills in Shedd.

Martin was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Marian, sisters Irene Barshaw and Marietta Shelley and brother Charles Elbert Thompson. He is survived by his children and their spouses, Ann and Anthony Amort, Martin Jr. and Mary Thompson and Susan and Dean Campbell, grandsons Austin and Aaron Amort and brother and sister-in-law Alan and Kathy Thompson.

A memorial service will be held at 11:00 am on Tuesday December 21st at McHenry Funeral Home, 206 N.W. 5th St., Corvallis, OR 97330. Please leave your thoughts and memories for the family at www.mchenryfuneralhome.com.

Memorial donations in Martin's name may be sent to the Thompson's Mills Preservation Society in care of McHenry Funeral Home.

“ Mr. Thompson was instrumental in getting the Thompson's Mill (formerly Boston Mill) listed as an Oregon Heritage Site. I enjoyed discussing green building and sustainability with him. He was so knowledgeable about so many things. Condolences to Ann, Marty, Susan and the Thompson family..
