“ Nothing hurts more than coming too late to realize such a great person is gone from this world. My thoughts have always been with Mrs. Hoffman along with Mr. Hoffman. I thank her so much for the guide she's given me, the care and stories told along with how welcoming they both have been. Mrs. Moore, I miss you, I'm sorry I lost track of time but know your memory will live on to those you've touched when you were with us.

“ Hi Mary-Anne, I didn't know how to express the loss I was feeling so I'm writing a bit late. You are one of the most amazing people that help shape the way I think about and face the world. Meeting you and then Mike over 15 years ago changed my life and I'm very sorry I didn't speak to you like we planned recently. Please know you will never be forgotten, you will live in my heart as long as I'm here.

Mike, I hope the memories of your wonderful life together and your adventures gives you lasting comfort. I know losing her is heart breaking, but having her for the time we did in this world was a blessing.

*With all my love and sorrow

Dear Mike. I'm Betty Plummer, Maryanne's cousin. She came to my thought so I googled. Im sorry she had to leave while God knows out times. May i convey my condolences to you now as I hoped to touch in after some years of tumultuous times amid the good. I fondly remember us meeting in Victoria BC for Dads memorial service in 2007 and going to the Victorian Tea House and seaside boyhood favorite spot. She dealt with a lot and you two had strong faith and Joy and love. I send you prayers for hope and Joy for a coming brighter reality of Gods blessings and love.

Mary Anne has touched my life and many others in so many loving and endearing ways. She will always be remembered as loving, kind, generous, and encouraging. She was to me more like an aunt than friend.

“ Always loved your cheerful demeanor and obvious caring for those around you. Especially fond of our neighborly driveway chats and time on each others' porches. Will miss you very much.

“ Always very kind and always very interested, that is how I remind Mary Anne. I'm grateful I could play a part in some of her adventures. It was always a joy finding Mike's and Mary Anne's emails in my box with news and updates from Oregon and from the rest of the world. Mike, I hope you will get the strength to live without your friend and wife. My thoughts are with you.

“ Mary Anne was my father's oldest dear friend. They were close for nearly sixty years after meeting in San Diego in the 1960s. I was lucky to cross paths with her many times over the course of my life and though I did not see her frequently enough, she always had a place in my heart. Visiting her home(s) over the years was always delightful as they were both inviting and casual but grand and filled with enchanting treasures throughout. She was warm and intellectually adventuresome. She exuded a special kind of wisdom, humor, and care that always warmed me and made me feel the world was a magical place. I loved seeing her together with her husband Mike who is a bright soul full of joy and kindness and humor. I was so sad the hear of her passing yesterday. I am thinking today of her family and of Michael and my dad.

“ I have gotten to know Mary Anne and her husband through her medical care in the past few months. She exhibited a special kind of grace and calmness that shined brightly in the chaos of this world. She and has husband have become like family to me. I love the way they giggle and talk to each other. I am saddened to hear this news. She lived a beautiful life and will live on in my memory.
