

Mary McNeeley

April 6, 1926 - July 21, 2010

Mary Kathryn McNeeley, age 84, died Wednesday in her home of Alzheimer's related heart failure. She was born to Ethel and William Hull in Bellfountain and attended Monroe High School. She was a loving wife to Ted McNeeley and mother to three loving daughters. She enjoyed gardening, volunteering at the hospital, baking her blue-ribbon bread, and camping with the Good Sam Club.

She was preceded in death by her daughter Sharon Cooper and will be missed by her husband Ted, daughters Susan Drake and Linda Louie, four grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren. Viewing will be at 10:00 am Saturday July 24th followed by a funeral service at 11:00 am, both at McHenry Funeral Home, 206 NW 5th St., Corvallis, OR.
