“Maxine was my favorite aunt! My first memory of her was when I was about six and she gave my naturally straight hair a perm (called a Toni, back in the day). The process worked and according to a photo I have, it was very curly! I've never again had hair with that much curl! I recall spending time at the house on the hill in Enterprise babysitting Julie, sledding down the hill during winter, and always leaving the Hahn home with several comic books, complements of Arnold.

When I was older, Grandma Anderson would ask me if I wanted to go with her to visit Maxine and, of course, my answer was always yes! We would travel by bus to Grants Pass and later on to Fremont where we would stay a few days! When I was in my 20s and had my own car, I drove to Fremont to visit Maxine and the family several times. To be around her was always a treat for me!

I loved being around Maxine because she was always enthusiastic and glad to see me. She filled a part of my heart because she was my mom's only sister. That relationship was important to me when I lost my mother at a young age. When I think of Maxine I will remember her laugh, her stories, her joy of living, and her faith. I'm glad that someday I will see her again.
