

Maxine Lee

April 1, 1929 - August 9, 2017

Former Corvallis resident Maxine Jorgensen Lee died August 9, 2017 in Salt Lake City, Utah. She was 88.

Maxine was born April 1, 1929 to Ariel and Mary Hazel (Norr) Jorgensen in Amalga, Utah.

She married W. Orvid Lee in Logan, Utah on June 10, 1949. The couple had four children.

Maxine will be remembered for her positive attitude and always having a smile on her face. She loved to cook, sew, quilt, read, and to grow dahlias and fuchsias. She was a wonderful and devoted mother.

She also ran a bookstore called the Book House in Corvallis, where she lived for over 50 years before moving to Utah.

Maxine was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

She is preceded in death by husband W. Orvid Lee and granddaughter Alison Eldredge.

She is survived by children David (Kay), Doug, Kathy (Spencer) Chatfield and Linda (Kelly) Porter; 16 grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren.

A visitation will be at noon on August 23 at McHenry Funeral Home followed by services at 1 p.m.

“ I got to know Mrs. Maxine J. Lee through my husband Dr. Ishmael O. Akobundu who was a student of Dr. O. Lee at O.S.U. Maxine is a very Godly woman with a very kind heart. We were living in Corvallis as foreign students and Maxine and her family became very good friends with me, my husband and our three children. Maxine took us in as members of her own family. The good she did lives on. May her gentle soul rest in perfect peace.
