

Michael Camden Decker

June 6, 1999 - May 3, 2023

Our beloved Son, Brother, and Father Michael (Mikey) Camden Decker unexpectedly passed away on May 3, 2023 at the age of 23. Mikey was born in Salem, Oregon on June 6, 1999 at 4:20pm.

Mikey is survived by a large family who loved him with all of our hearts, including: Parents: Michael D.D. Decker and Karen and Duwane Beach; Grandparents: Deborah Decker and Kay Haller; Siblings: Kyra Jones, Katelynn Gorter (Joseph Gorter), Kameron Beach, Kiahnna Mann (Dru Mann), Khyler Beach, Joshua Decker and Morgan Decker; Many Niece's, Nephew's, Aunt's, Uncle's, Cousins and Friends who were ultimately family.

Most important Mikey leaves behind his most cherished and forever loved Daughter Scarlett Rose Decker, the very center of Mikey's life since her birth just 5 years ago.

To know Mikey means you were touched by his generous, kind, loving "give the shirt off his own back" (even when he had none) kind of man that he was. You were captivated and filled instantly with love and joy when he would bat his intense sparkling blue eyes at you and filled with equally goofy giggling as he filled the room with silliness and a laugh that cannot be described in words. To know Mikey means you were as blessed as we were.

Mikey was preceded in death by his Grandparents Michael A. Decker; June Christle; and Byron and Candy Beach.

Friends and family are invited to join together in celebrating Mikeys life on Saturday May 13, 2023 at 1:00pm at Willamette Community Church/Albany Christian School in the Fellowship Hall Room located at 420 SE 3rd Avenue Albany, Oregon 97321

In lieu of flowers donations to National Alliance on Mental Illness may be made in honor of Mikey's memory
