

Mitchell Gordon Smith

June 16, 1992 - May 26, 2024

Mitchell Gordon Smith, Albany, Oregon, passed away due to the illness of addiction after three and a half years of a clean life. He passed away at Good Samaritan Hospital, Corvallis, Oregon on May 26, 2024, at the age of 31. Mitchell was born on June 16, 1992, in Everett, Washington. Mitchell is predeceased by his beloved girlfriend Kayla Chappell and paternal grandfather, Gordon Fritz. He is survived by his mother, Jessica English and his father and stepmother David and Tiffany Smith. Mitchell is also survived by his maternal grandmother, Dinma Rodriguez-Rios, and his paternal grandparents, Irving “De” and Starley Smith. Mitchell leaves behind his daughter Jacklynne Smith, his siblings Ryan Smith (Rylee), Cory English (Kendra), Nicholas English (Alex), Jacob Smith, Garrett English and Amari English. Mitchell is also survived by nephews, Wyatt, Leeroy, and Jameson. And many other extended family. Mitchell was a caring and loving big brother to his younger siblings. He enjoyed sports that offered a thrill such as motorcross, skateboarding and pole vaulting in high school. He graduated from Murphysboro High School in Illinois and was an apprentice carpenter with Carpenters Union Local 541. Mitchell’s family wishes to thank the many caring doctors, nurses, and staff at Good Samaritan Hospital for their outstanding care of Mitchell over the last week. If you wish to honor Mitchell, please donate to “Circle of Hope/Adult Drug Court Program” of Benton County, Oregon.
