

Nancy Burdick

September 12, 1933 - April 6, 2008

Nancy Byers Burdick, 74, died Sunday in Albany.

She was born to Walter and Marcelle Salmon in Baltimore, Md. She moved as a child to southern California, where she grew up.

She married Fay Eugene Burdick on Oct. 15, 1949, and soon after, they moved to Corvallis. In Corvallis, she worked at home and as a nurse.

She enjoyed needlework and spending time with her family.

She is survived by daughters JenEl Farrell of Salem and Sandra Darby of Shedd; son Tim of Philomath; numerous brothers and sisters; nine grandchildren; and 16 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband in 2005 and son Ronald.

Private burial will be at Crystal Lake Cemetery in Corvallis.

McHenry Funeral Home is handling arrangements.

Tribute Wall

RB

“ Dear Janelle, Tim, and Sandra: I'm so sorry to hear of your Moms death. My brother Doug and I drove over to visit with her last month and she seemed tired, but happy. Had plenty to talk about. Spoke of her neighbors and how interesting they were to visit with. Your mom was a lovely lady and loved by everyone she met. We will all miss her.

Yours truly, Rosey

Rosey Booth - April 09, 2008 at 10:05 PM

JF

“ Nancy Burdick

JEANETTE FISHER - April 09, 2008 at 01:23 PM