

Ohnn Nahm M.D.

February 21, 1967 - May 15, 2017

Ohnn Nahm, M.D., died May 15, 2017, at his Corvallis home. He was 50.

Dr. Nahm was born on February 21, 1967, in Iksan, Korea, to Jongkil and Jonghee Nahm. He moved to the United States as a teenager and continued his studies. He married Seong Ok Kim in Seoul, Korea, and later graduated from the University of Maryland at College Park and Drexel University College of Medicine. He completed an internal medicine residency at the University of Maryland medical system in Baltimore and completed a nephrology (kidney specialty) fellowship at Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine in Baltimore.

Dr. Nahm joined Samaritan Health Services in 2003 and served as the system's Nephrology Program Director while also caring for many patients with kidney disease in Linn, Benton and Lincoln counties. He was known as a highly respected physician who formed strong bonds with his medical colleagues, staff and patients.

In his spare time, Dr. Nahm loved art, classical music, jazz, literature, European movies and watching NBA basketball with his family. He was a member of First Presbyterian Church in Corvallis.

Dr. Nahm is survived by his wife, Seong; daughter Mimi; son Hanu; his parents; and brothers Sahn and Hahn.

A memorial service is scheduled for Wednesday, May 31, at 4 p.m. at First Presbyterian Church, 114 SW Eighth St., Corvallis. A fund for Dr. Nahm's children has been established at Wells Fargo Bank. Contributions should be made to Ohnn Nahm, Account No. 8530155665. A note may also be made in the memo line that the contribution is in Memory of Ohnn Nahm.

“ I knew Ohnn to be a vastly caring doctor and parent. He caught my daughter's complication, when two other doctors had missed it. His care and advice on life will be treasured by her always. I miss the light that was here with him being in this world.

Thank you for sharing him with us.

“ He saved my wife's life he listened to her and her needs. He worked with her to get and keep her off dialysis. He was a very caring person and will be sorely missed by anyone who knew him

“ My favorite memory of Ohnn was his face when he talked to people. He was a man with incredible compassion. I was blessed to have worked for him and the love in his heart was evident always. I will always miss having fresh coffee out for him or sneaking chocolate in his dapper coat pocket. He gave the very best of himself to us and now he is resting with the Lord. Please accept my heart felt sorrow in his passing. My prayers are with you.
