“ Pat and I attended and graduated from Marshall High School together. We had some really good times together especially in Junior High. We were silly little girls but we had fun. Pat was such a sweet girl and A good friend. So glad I got to make contact with her after all of these years.

“ Thinking of you all during this difficult time, but I just know that Aunt Pat was greeted by Uncle Jim grinning from ear to ear upon her arrival. I know my mom was happy to see her too. Hopefully there is a Starbucks in heaven as I know they've got lots to catch up on!

“ Pat was the greatest sister. We grew up together and always shared our life memories. Pat and her husband Jim were so much fun to be around. They were the best parents and grandparents!! I will always remember and love the memories. Miss you both! Love y'all, Jimmy.
