

Patricia Carroll Xyandrya Settles

September 28, 1917 - March 30, 2019

Beloved wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother, Patricia Carroll Xyandrya Settles enriched the lives of her family and friends. She was a teacher to many whom she taught the art of visualizing positive changes in their lives. She impacted many people's lives with her energy and love. The rainbow was and forever shall remain her symbol of joy.

She is survived by her son, Kent; daughter-in-law, Judy; granddaughter, Jane Cigarran; grandson, Edward; son-in-law, Colin; and great-grandson, Anton.

She is preceded in death by her beloved husband of 61 years, Chet Settles; and eldest son, Larry Lee Settles, who was a veteran of the Vietnam War.

She lived a long and fruitful life and will be greatly missed.
