

Patrick Lee McGhee

March 29, 1951 - October 6, 2014

Our friend, Patrick Lee McGhee, the rootin' tootin' trail boss, rode off into the sky to meet Jesus on Monday, October 6, 2014.

Pat, or "Mr. Favor" as he loved to be called, hung his hat in Corvallis, Oregon. He resided at Home Life's Woods House and prior to that was a resident of the Koebel House (or 25th Street as it was formerly known).

Pat was well known for his Wonder Woman costumes at Halloween, his numerous handwritten notes to his boss, Shirley, at Packaging Plus (Cornerstone Associates) and his cowboy boots. He always had a country music cassette tape in his pocket and was packed and ready to go at any moment for Upward Bound Camp or an impromptu trip to Colorado.

Pat was a lone ranger who cared deeply about all of his friends and his Home Life family. He made the world a little bit brighter with his shining eyes and mischievous grin. He will be missed by many.

A celebration of life will take place on Tuesday, October 21 at 10am at Mc Henry Funeral Home. The casket will be open from 9:00 am to 9:45 am. Friends are encouraged to come and share their memories of Pat and enjoy light refreshments.

Home Life would like to send special thanks to Benton Hospice and the staff who cared for Pat with compassion and respect. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Home Life, Inc.

“May your troubles all be small ones and your fortunes ten times ten. May the good Lord bless and keep you, ‘til we meet again.” – Jim Reeves
