“ My Uncle Paul. What nice guy he was. I remember growing up with him living next door with Grandpa and Grandma. He was in the Army and traveled to Europe and brought his Mother gifts from his trip. He was so smart; went to college, worked at General Electric on some very important projects. But what I remember most about him, is that he always seemed happy. Kind of a jokester at times. I wish my family in New York had known of his passing. But I guess Life and Death gets in the way of communication. I will keep him in my prayers.
