She and other sister quilters made and hand delivered warm quilt to every child living in the Chaslivtsi Orphanage in Uzhgorod, Ukraine (a sister city of Corvallis). She was able to do three to chips to Uzhgorod and helped give out the quilts. She made and sent new quilts with each years delegation to the orphanage, in order to provide extra quilts that may have been needed in the future at the orphanage.

She also sponsored individual children yearly in the Ukraine to help them with the education and personal belongings they needed to succeed in their occupations and make a better life.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Al Davis; parents Paul and Mabel Zedwick; brother, Andrew Zedwick; and her tiny baby brother Bubba who died in infancy of a heart deformity.

Special thanks to the staff at New Horizon's Home Health Care and Lumina Hospice of Oregon. All of their caregivers gave Peggy special care. Our family will never forget your kindness and love for our mother. God bless each one of you.

Peg was such a cheerleader for Jesus, family and education. I met Peg and Al in the early 80's. We became fast friends. They took many trips in which I would house sit, always bringing me something back from their adventures. She was always prepared for our annual trick or treating at her home. Quick to offer a cup of coffee and a chat. Lovely lady!

I did not have the pleasure of knowing Peg, however, I could see her love, enjoyment for life ,and caring through her daughter Sherri. May God comfort all of you.
