

Phyllis Carol Barker

November 11, 1946 - February 22, 2024

Phyllis C. Barker of Philomath, Oregon passed away peacefully on February 22, 2024 at the Oregon Veterans Home in Lebanon, Oregon.

Phyllis was born on Veterans Day, November 11, 1946, in Toledo, Oregon. Growing up, she lived in many different logging communities as her father pursued jobs in that industry. She married Navy and Vietnam War Veteran, Jim Barker in September of 1969. After living for a short time in both California and Washington, they settled in Corvallis for 16 years. In 1991, they moved to Harlan until the passing of Jim in May of 2013. Phyllis then moved to Philomath and was so proud to live in the first house her grandson built. She enjoyed her family, her little dogs, her cat and collecting anything with owls on it.

Phyllis is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Terra and Lance Patton. Her grandchildren Ty and his wife Rachel, Spencer and his wife Ali, Chase and his wife Alexis and her great grandchildren Jackson, Landon, Grace, Ella and Wren. She is also survived by her brother, Dan Loveall and his wife Carol and many in-laws, nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Jim Barker, her parents, Lenard and Lois (Hazelton) Loveall, her in-laws, Walter and Dolores (Spriggs) Barker and daughter, Tonya.

Per Phyllis's request, there will be a small family graveside service at Oaklawn Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, please send donations in memory of Phyllis Barker to any of the following: The American Diabetes Association (diabetes.org), The American Heart Association (heart.org) or The Dementia Society of America (dementiasociety.org).
